The press of the territory is laboring under a mistake in publishing the tax rate of Coconino county at $4.50 hundred. The general rate in this county is only $3.10. A special school tag in Flagstaff district increases the general tax five cents, making the total tax in this district $3.15 and the special school tax in Williams makes the total tax in that district $3.35.—Flagstaff Sun-Demo-

Mrs. W. H. Maxwell, whose husband died in the city a few days ago, in a letter to a friend writes that she arrived at her home in Castle Rock, with the remains of her husband all right and without accident. She reached there on Friday afternoon and the funeral occurred on the day following. Her letter spoke kindly of Tucson people and of the kind treatment which she received in this city.-Tueson Chizen.

Mr. Everett Putnam of Putnam & Kelley, merchants at Mammoth, is in the city on business. The firm is the largest in that section. From Mr. Putnam the Tucson Star learns that work is progressing wel lon the Mam-moth and the double compartment shaft is being opened up. There are about twenty men working and the mechanics for doing the contsruction are arriving and the prospects are good for an early resumption of work on a large scale.

Jesus Majla was arrested yesterday charged with poisoning his child. Cir-cumstances are very strong against him. Yesterday morning he applied to the clerk of the board of health for a burial permit. He was infromed that the same could not be secured without a doctor's certificate or one from the health officers, Dr. Olcott, the health officer, being present at the time, drove to Majai's home accompanied by Recorder Connell and much to their surprise found the child alive, but suffering will all indications of poisoning. Dr. Olcott immediately called in Dr. Purcell, the county physician, who coincided with Dr. Olcott in his views. They used every en-deavor to save the child but to no avail, the child dying at 3 o'clock p. m. Two days ago another child of Majia's died under similar circumstances. Drs. Olcott and Purcell will hold an autopsy upon the child and Majia will appear before Judge Scott for a hearing today.—Tucson Star.

DEATH FROM CARE LESSNESS.

Lander, Wyo., Oct. 28.—Charles Hornecker, a 14-year-old son of Albert Hornecker, who lives about five miles from here, accidentally shot himself this afternoon while out hunting. He was drawing his gun through the fence muzzle first when it was discharged, the ball striking him just under the left nipple, passing through the lung, and lodged under the left his recovery.
